

THE SWEDISH NETWORK FOR EUROPEAN LEGAL STUDIES (SNELS)
AND UPPSALA UNIVERSITY ARE PROUD TO INVITE YOU TO A CONFERENCE ON

EU LAW IN THE DIGITAL AGE

UPPSALA, SWEDEN

June 16 – 17, 2022

Hosted by:

Maria Bergström (Uppsala University)

Valsamis Mitsilegas (Queen Mary University of London)

CONFERENCE OUTLINE

The conference will evaluate critically the transformation of EU law in the digital age. The conference brings together leading experts on a wide range of areas of EU law, ranging from criminal justice and immigration law to internal market and data protection law. Contributions from a multi-disciplinary perspective will address the challenges digitalisation poses on well-established legal principles, on fundamental rights and on the rule of law.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

The conference is free to attend and open to the public. Advance registration is required. It will be held in Lecture Hall IX in the University Main Building at Uppsala University. The conference will also be live streamed via Zoom. More information about online attendance will be provided to registered attendees.

For any further questions regarding this invitation, please email the network coordinator Palle Söderberg at palle.soderberg@juridicum.su.se.
