

Två examensarbeten/two degree projects

GE Healthcare Bioprocess Media department is part of GE Healthcare Life Sciences offers two degree projects at their R&D BioTechnology facilities in Uppsala. The department's vision is to provide customers with purification solutions for tomorrow's needs. Its activities include research and development of new chromatography media and design-in tools for Bioprocess including design, application and process development.

1. 20 weeks (30 p) masters degree project at Bioprocess Media department at GE Healthcare. Title: In-line buffer preparation optimization for large scale pharmaceutical manufacturing 2. 20 weeks (30 p) masters degree project at Bioprocess Media department at GE Healthcare.

Title: Comparison of different methods for ionic strength correction in advanced buffer calculations

Read more about the projects and apply here: <http://www.ge.com/careers/index.html> Choose "Sweden" and "Job search" to find the descriptions.

Företag/institution: GE Healthcare

Plats: Uppsala/Boländerna

Projektstart: Sök innan 30 maj/Apply before may 30th